

Second Chance Program

Juvenile Options for Lifelong Transition (JOLT)

Commission on Gang Prevention and Intervention
July 22, 2010

Juvenile Options for Lifelong Transition

JOLT
JOLT

Second Chance JOLT Program

- The JOLT program serves 16-21 year olds
 - Youth Offender Unit (YOU) commits – DJJ eligible referred by Probation
 - Previously incarcerated youth
- The Second Chance JOLT program supported by two grants:
 - San Diego County Probation Department
 - San Diego Workforce Partnership

JOLT Program Goals

- JOLT Supports the following outcomes:
 - Remain Substance Free
 - Reduce Law Violations
 - Become Self-Sufficient
 - High School Diploma/GED
 - Victim Restitution
 - Vocational Training
 - Employment

What Types of Services are Delivered?

- Services are delivered both in custody and out of custody

In custody facilities:

- Youth Offender Units (YOU): East Mesa Juvenile Detention Facility and Kearny Mesa Juvenile Detention Facility
- Girls Rehabilitation Facility (GRF)

In-Custody Services - YOU

- Second Chance JOLT provides assessment and transition plans in partnership with Probation
- In the Youthful Offender Units there are daily in-custody groups and one on one counseling sessions with Second Chance staff
- A coordinated pre-release exit plan involves probation, correctional staff, JCCS and Second Chance

In-Custody Services - WIA

- Outreach and Orientation
- Eligibility Determination
- Work Readiness Workshops
- Contributes to Individualized Transition Plan
- Participation at Exit Conference

"Back Home"

JOLT post-release services:

- Rapid engagement & Re-assessment
- Weekly contact
- Initiate Individual Service Plans
- Sober Living
- STRIVE Class
- Mentoring

Post Release Services- cont.

- Job Readiness Training
- Paid Internships
- Supportive services
- Support for GED/High School Diploma
- Support for Post Secondary Education/Vocational Training Support

CHALLENGES

- Coordination & Communication
- Continued Engagement of Youth
- Educational Attainment
- Lacking in employability skills
- Intensive Needs
- Delivering services throughout the County

HOW YOU CAN SUPPORT

- Help Youth Gain Work History
 - Need worksites for Internships and Jobs
 - Opportunities to Earn $
- Create an Array of Programming Options
 - Partnerships and programming that focuses on youth interests
- Incentives for Participation